Business of the Year - This award is given to the business that has done the most in the last year to improve the business community in North Hampton for the betterment of the local area and for their own accomplishments as a business.

New Business of the Year - This award is given to a new business that opened in North Hampton within the previous year. This business should create positive, new energy in the town with the services it brings to the North Hampton area.

The Stewardship Award - This award, new for 2019, is an award given to the business that most tastefully displays the space their business occupies. Businesses who further beautify their space through renovations and improvements that positively influence the visual appearance will be strongly considered.

THERE WILL BE THREE NOMINEES IN EACH CATEGORY
